February 5, 2008, 10:20 am

UPDATE: Congratulations to Linda Ellis for winning the Esente Beauty giveaway! The products are fabulous. For those who didn't win, there will be another giveaway sometime this week ;)

Does your skin feel like an itchy wool sweater? Do you have "alligator skin?" For many, winter not only brings good tidings of comfort and joy; but the dreaded winter skin woes. When the outdoor temperature drops and indoor heating cranks up, your skin is officially under assault. Low humidity levels and wintertime habits such as long, hot baths can make your delicate dermis crack, peel and itch resulting in a not-so-merry season.

No matter what the weather may be - the environment, sun exposure, chemicals and pollutants negatively affect the skin each day. Headquartered in Phoenix, Arizona, esenté is a premier skincare line with products developed to address individual skin needs. esenté has been committed to keeping the value that has established itself as a leader in the beauty industry. Through meticulous research and development, scientific advances, professional expertise and the understanding of a customer's well-being, esenté is continuing to change the face of beauty. This month we're giving away several products from the Esente line worth well over $100.00. The giveaway ends Sunday, February 3, 2008 at midnight. The rules are still the same:
